BREWERY
April 6th marks the 21st year the United States has recognized National Tartan Day, where we celebrate the contributions made by Scots and Scottish Americans to this country. Not only do we hold our annual parade on 6th Avenue between 44th and 55th streets, but we party all week with events that highlight what we’re all about, proud Americans with Tartan Hearts. This guide lists the many opportunities to GET YER KILT ON... so come join us.

Don’t forget, after the parade, join us in a toast at the official Post Parade Party held at Sony Hall on 46th Street, music sponsored by Belhaven and NH Scot.

Enjoy yourself, and truly excited to see you all!

Welcome to our 2019 Grand Marshal!

On April 6th, globally-renowned comedian, artist, musician, presenter, actor and artist, Sir Billy Connolly, graces the streets of New York City as the Grand Marshal of the 2019 New York City Tartan Day Parade for the 21st anniversary of Tartan Day.

Kyle Dawson, President of the New York Tartan Day Committee, said: “For over half a century, he has entertained us all through his work and, because of this, he is beloved on both sides of the pond. This is a big year with the Big Yin.”

“I’m thrilled to be this year’s Grand Marshal of the New York City Tartan Day Parade. I can’t wait to hear all those bagpipes echoing off the skyscrapers and to see Sixth Avenue awash with thousands of swaying kilts. It’s going to be brilliant.”

— Sir Billy Connolly

Scottish Gaelic Workshop with Àdhamh Ó Broin

As Gaelic expert consultant on the popular TV series, Outlander, Ádhamh has learned Scottish Gaelic to fluency from scratch. This means that he is acutely aware of the challenges faced by other learners. At this workshop, he will provide a beginner course that provides a foundation that clarifies some of the more confusing aspects of learning the language. He will focus on the alphabet, pronunciation (especially the sounds that are different from English), pronunciation and conjugation of the nouns (always a confusing point), simple sentence structure, pronouns and simple conversation that would be common.

Tartan Day on Ellis Island
EVENT — APRIL 4-15, 2019
Celebrating our 18th annual celebration of Tartan Day! Tartan Day on Ellis Island, organized by Clan Currie, began its successful collaboration with the Ellis Island Immigration Museum in 2002 in the coordination and sponsorship of their first Tartan Day celebration, besides featuring Scottish themed exhibitions on the Jacobites and America, the Life and Legacy of John Muir, A Celebration of Tartan, and Scots and the American West. Celebrations also feature performances by a whole host of Scottish artists including pipers and drummers, Highland dancers, fiddlers, jugglers and harpists to name a few.
